Quinn Joins Multi-Financial as Vice President and National Sales Manager

[DENVER, COLO.] — Multi-Financial Securities Corporation announced today the hiring of James (Jay) Quinn as vice president and national sales manager. A California native, Quinn brings nearly 25 years of financial services experience to Multi-Financial. He most recently served as managing director of sales and marketing at Welton Street Investments in Denver, Colo. Previously, Quinn held leadership positions with Fidelity Investments and Schwab Advisor Services, a division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. During his 13 years with Schwab, he was responsible for the sales strategy and execution in the RIA channel.

In his new role with Multi-Financial, Quinn will guide practice management, recruitment and relationship management, helping financial advisors grow and strengthen in these areas while implementing best practices. He will also work closely with Los Angeles-based Barnaby Grist, Cetera Financial Group's executive vice president of wealth management, to drive Multi-Financial's advisory platform to the next level.

"I am excited about the extensive industry experience Jay brings to us," said Multi-Financial President and CEO Brett Harrison. "He understands the independent financial advisor and their business needs. His focus on our advisors, as we build the most capable wealth management offering in the independent broker-dealer space, will be a tremendous asset. I'm delighted to welcome him to our team."

Quinn, 50, is qualified as a general securities representative (Series 7), as a general securities principal (Series 24) and as a uniformed securities agent (Series 63). He also possesses his Series 8, Series 9 and Series 10 NYSE Branch Manager registrations. He graduated from the University of California, Berkeley with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1982.

"I'm pleased to join Multi-Financial, as we offer a genuinely independent solution without proprietary products or hidden agendas," said Quinn. "It will be a pleasure to work with our advisors and help them achieve their goals."
